

21st CENTURY CIVIC AND SOCIAL EXPECTATIONS FOR STUDENT LEARNING

PERSONAL SKILL DEVELOPMENT

(Measures of personal, social, service, and leadership skills and demonstrations of positive behaviors and attitudes)

- Understands that each individual is instrumental in improving the quality of life for all members of the community.
- Demonstrates critical, creative, and innovative thinking, while identifying and solving real-world problems.
- Understands the need and accepts the responsibility for autonomous learning and self-direction.
- Understands and values the responsibilities and the rights of United States citizenship and knowledgeably participates in the democratic process.
- Understands and respects the need for standards of self-discipline, accountability, integrity, and ethics in a civil society.
- Demonstrates and recognizes the principles of wellness and physical fitness.

STUDENT ENGAGEMENT

(The extent to which students are motivated and committed to learning; have a sense of belonging and accomplishment; and have relationships with adults, peers, and parents that support learning)

- Has an adult in the school, who knows the student well and assists the student in achieving their outcomes.
- Demonstrates collaboration skills as a member of a team, is able to teach others new skills, and exercises leadership qualities and negotiation skills.
- Demonstrates the ability to work with and show respect for diverse groups of people and recognizes the need for social responsibility and global awareness.
- Is an active student member in co-curricular activities.