

Liston Family Scholars Application

This scholarship is one of King University's most prestigious academic awards and is available to incoming traditional first-year students. The award provides for the full cost of tuition and the comprehensive fee at King University each year for a total of 4 years, based on continuous full time enrollment in an undergraduate program. This scholarship will be awarded to the ten most deserving students who enroll in the fall 2018 semester.

Eligibility requirements

- Applicants must reside within a 150 mile radius of King University's Bristol campus, and live in Southwest Virginia, Northeast Tennessee, Western North Carolina, West Virginia and Eastern Kentucky
- Students who are in the top 5% of their class or are selected as the Valedictorian or Salutatorian of their graduating class
- Students that are graduating from the Darlington School in Rome, Georgia

This is a highly competitive and sought after award; therefore, recipients will be expected to demonstrate commitment to academic scholarship, Christian fellowship, community/civic service, and university engagement. Requests may be made to engage with the campus community during their enrollment at King University.
