

What category does my organization/group fall into?

There are a number of factors that determine how the CUS Office will categorize an application.

By filling out the application and answering the questions within, we are better able to determine the category.

Having an application reviewed and processed allows us to provide the applicant with an estimate of costs, the ability to make changes, provide clarification and if necessary, cancel.

After reviewing the approved contract, the applicant may cancel without penalty.