Changing your URL search engine to Google.

First click on Microsoft Edge to open the browser.

Next click on the 3 dots and then choose settings:
Then choose “Privacy, search and services:

The Scroll all the way to the bottom and look for “Search engine used in the address bar.” Click on the down arrow and choose Google.
It should look like this when finished. You can then close out the settings tab.